

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
FOR THE SEVENTH CIRCUIT
219 South Dearborn Street
Chicago, Illinois 60604

PRESS RELEASE

Chief Judge Diane P. Wood of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit is pleased to announce that Christopher G. Conway has been selected to serve as Clerk of Court. Mr. Conway will fill the vacancy created by the retirement of Gino J. Agnello.

Christopher Conway most recently served as the court's Attorney Advisor/Court Services Manager. He joined the Clerk's Office in 1991. In his almost 29 years with the court, he has had the opportunity to work in every department in the Clerk's office. After beginning his career in the Case Processing Department, he moved on to manage the court's Pro Se Department. In time, he was in charge of the combined Court Services and Pro Se Departments. Mr. Conway also did crossover work in the Court's Financial Department as the court's Internal Control Evaluation Officer.

Christopher Conway was born and raised in the Chicago area. He earned his bachelor's degree from Lewis University cum laude and earned his law degree from DePaul University College of Law.
