

THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE SEVENTH CIRCUIT

219 South Dearborn Street
Chicago, Illinois 60604

December 5, 2013

DIANE P. WOOD
Chief Judge

No. 07-13-90091

IN RE COMPLAINT AGAINST A JUDICIAL OFFICER

MEMORANDUM

Complainants, one Member of Congress and two heads of public interest organizations, have filed a complaint against a judge in which they assert that the judge violated Canons 2(B) and 4(C) of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges. The judge did so, Complainants believe, when the judge was featured on the program of the 2013 annual dinner of the Federalist Society, an organization that describes itself as “a group of conservatives and libertarians interested in the current state of the legal order ...” that seeks to “reorder[] priorities within the legal system to place a premium on individual liberty, traditional values, and the rule of law.” See “Our Purpose,” The Federalist Society, <http://www.fed-soc.org/aboutus/> (last visited Dec. 4, 2013). Tickets to the annual dinner cost $200 per person. On the dinner program (as in the Annual Report, the Student Symposium brochure, and the Convention brochure), the Society acknowledged the financial support for the Society as an institution furnished by several corporations and law firms. The Complaint goes on to note that Canon 4(C) provides that a judge “should not personally participate in fund-raising activities, solicit funds for any organization, or use or permit the use of the prestige of judicial office for that purpose.” Commentary to Canon 4(C) explains that attendance at fund-raising events for law-related or other organizations is permitted, so long as the judge is not a speaker, a guest of honor, or featured on the program for the event. Canon 2(B), the Complaint adds, reinforces this message in its provision that “[a] judge should neither lend the prestige of the judicial office to advance the private interests of the judge or others, nor convey or permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence the judge.”

As required by 28 U.S.C. § 352(a) and Rule 11 of the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings, I have reviewed this Complaint. I determined that a limited inquiry, as permitted by section 352(a) and Rule 11(b), was appropriate, and so I wrote to the subject judge and obtained the judge's written response to the Complaint. That response made clear that the pivotal initial question is whether the Society's annual dinner is, as a factual matter, a fund-raising event. In order to answer that question, I contacted the Executive Vice President of the Society for further information. His response, which appears as Appendix 1 to this Memorandum, reports that the Society's out-of-pocket cost for the annual dinner is just over $225 per person. Tickets cost $175 for active members of the Society and $200 for non-members. The brochure for the annual meeting lists these prices. There is no indication anywhere that any amount of the ticket is earmarked as a charitable or other contribution to the Society. To the contrary, as the information from the organization indicates, the price does not even cover the full cost of the event.

I considered whether the listing of sponsors on the dinner program could somehow require characterization of the dinner as a fund-raising event, but I concluded that nothing in Canon 4(C) or Canon 2(B) supports such a conclusion. Many organizations devoted to the legal system hold comparable events; the price of dinners is approximately $200 per ticket. See, for example, Appendix 2, showing that the cost of the annual reception and dinner for the Seventh Circuit Bar Association's 62nd Annual Meeting, May 5-7, 2013, was $200, or $100 for judges and government lawyers. Bar and legal reform organizations commonly receive corporate and law-firm support, and that support is acknowledged in the meeting pamphlet. See Appendix 3, the Program Guide for the American Bar Association's 2013 Annual Meeting, which is supported by the private organizations listed in the Expo Guide.

Based on this initial review, I have concluded that this Complaint should be dismissed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(B), because my limited inquiry, conducted under subsection (a), demonstrates that the allegations in the Complaint "lack any factual foundation or are conclusively refuted by objective evidence." See also Rule 11(c)(1)(A), requiring dismissal of a complaint if it "alleges conduct that, even if true, is not prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts" The dinner in question was not a fund-raiser, and so the Canons prohibiting judges from appearing as the speaker or featured participant in fund-raisers do not apply.

2013 Annual Dinner Expenses.docx

MEMORANDUM

To: Collins Fitzpatrick
From: Leonard Leo
Date: December 3, 2013

This is to clarify issues surrounding sponsorship of the Federalist Society by various law firms and businesses. As we explain in advance to potential sponsors of the Federalist Society, their sponsorship is recognized by mention in the Federalist Society's Annual Report, the Student Symposium brochure, the National Lawyers Convention brochure and online app, and the Convention annual dinner program. As such, the firms and businesses are sponsors of the Federalist Society as an institution, not the annual dinner.

Attached is a short worksheet showing our out-of-pocket expenses for the annual dinner, which come to just over $225 per person.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Federalist Society
2013 Annual Dinner Expenses

Omni Shoreham (catering and AV)	$222,458
Décor	$48,987
Comped Attendees (129 staff, staff guests, speakers, speaker guests, student volunteers)	$25,800
Photographic services	$1,100
Printing	$1,190
Invitation printing/postage	$2,204
CRC	$3,000
Total Dinner Expenses	$304,739

With 1350 attendees, the per person cost for the dinner is $225.73.

Admission cost to attend the dinner was $175 for active members and $200 for non-members.

ADVANTAGE PAVILION

TEN GREAT REASONS TO VISIT THE ABA ADVANTAGE EXPO PAVILION

1. Take a swing in our virtual golf tournament to be our EXPO "top golfer!" Top male and female scores win a $100 Visa® gift card courtesy of Hertz.
2. Check out the latest and greatest S and CLA class vehicles from Mercedes-Benz and enter to win a two-week test drive!
3. Enter our hourly drawings for a chance to win iPad® minis, Starwood hotel stays, Hertz car rental certificates, an Apple® gift card, a Lenovo IdeaTab S6000, giveaways from Office Depot and Brooks Brothers, and more!
4. Enjoy complimentary coffee courtesy of Bank of America.
5. Receive style tips through Brooks Brothers mini wardrobe seminars.
6. Attend an outstanding discussion and book signing with nationally known authors Marcia Clark, Sheldon Siegel, David O. Stewart, and Talmage Boston on Saturday, 9:00 AM.
7. Apply for an ABA credit card from Bank of America or bring a receipt showing at least $100 in purchases during your stay in San Francisco to receive a FREE coffee mug and iTunes® gift card!
8. Learn about ABA member discounts and savings from reps of ABA Advantage companies.
9. Spin the virtual Office Depot wheel. Everybody wins!
10. Attend the ABA EXPO reception on Friday, August 9, to mingle with fellow members, explore the EXPO Pavilion and enjoy complimentary cocktails.
