

THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE SEVENTH CIRCUIT
219 South Dearborn Street
Chicago, Illinois 60604

June 28, 2022

Chief Judge Diane S. Sykes

No. 07-22-90036

IN RE COMPLAINT AGAINST A JUDGE

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

The complainant filed a misconduct complaint against the judge who presides over his civil case. He challenges some of the judge's rulings and complains that the judge (or by implication, the court clerk) made data-entry errors and omitted from the electronic docket certain pages of documents he filed. He also accuses the judge and the defense lawyer of bias against him.

Allegations concerning the merits of a judge's decisions are not proper grounds for a misconduct complaint. 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii). "Any allegation that calls into question the correctness of an official action of a judge ... is merits related." STEPHEN BREYER ET AL., IMPLEMENTATION OF THE JUDICIAL CONDUCT AND DISABILITY ACT OF 1980: A REPORT TO THE CHIEF JUSTICE 145 (2006). The challenges to the judge's rulings, as well as the timing and order of rulings, are merits related and must be dismissed. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii). The complainant's allegations of bias are wholly unsupported and must be dismissed. Id. § 352(b)(1)(A)(iii); see RULES FOR JUD.-CONDUCT & JUD.-DISABILITY PROC. 11(c)(1)(D). The allegation that certain documents were not properly scanned and entered on the docket is related to an action of the clerk's office, not a judge, and is beyond the purview of the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act. 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(i). Similarly, the allegations related to the defense attorney are beyond the purview of the Act. Id.

For the foregoing reasons, this complaint is dismissed pursuant to § 352(b)(1)(A)(i), (ii), and (iii). The complainant may petition the Judicial Council of the Seventh Circuit for review of this order in accordance with Rule 18(b) of the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings. 28 U.S.C. § 352(c); see RULES FOR JUD.-CONDUCT & JUD.-DISABILITY PROC. 11(g)(3). A petition for review must be filed in the clerk's office of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit not later than 42 days of the date of this order.
